What do Cornell Notes Look Like?

The Curve of Forgetting

- By day 2, if you do not think about or review your notes, you will lose 50%-80% of what you learned.
- By day 30, if you do not think about or review your notes, you remember only 2% - 3% of what you learned on day 1.

The Value of Cornell Notes

- Students who take no notes or some notes retain less than 59% of what was learned.
- Students who take and use Cornell Notes as a study tool retain 90%-100% of what was learned.

Table Talk

- With your table group, discuss when you should take notes in class.
- Make a list.
- Be prepared to share with the class!

- Look in your textbook and add details from the book to your notes.

Review Notes

- Fold your notes so that the questions show, but the notes do not. Quiz yourself or work with another student to quiz each other.

Cornell Note Requirement

- You are required to take at least 3 pages of Cornell Notes per class per week.
- You may choose any 5 classes to take notes for (no notes are required for P.E.)
